2. Capital Structure

2.1 Share Capital

The share capital of Siegfried Holding AG recorded in the commercial register as of December 31, 2018 amounts to CHF 8 513 498, divided into 4 256 749 fully paid-up registered shares with a par value of CHF 2 per share. All registered shares (with the exception of treasury shares) authorize the holder to exercise one vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and grant the right to receive dividends (subject to the dividend resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders). There are no preferred rights attached to any Siegfried shares.

The shares are issued as uncertificated securities within the meaning of Article 973c of the Swiss Code of Obligations and registered as intermediated securities within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act. Shareholders have no right to request the printing and delivery of share certificates or the conversion of the form in which shares are issued into another form. Shareholders may, however, at any time request from Siegfried Holding AG the delivery of a confirmation as to the registered shares entered under his/her name in the share register.

2.2 Authorized and Conditional Share Capital

2.2.1 Authorized Share Capital

As of December 31, 2018, Siegfried does not have any authorized share capital

2.2.2 Conditional Share Capital

The 2014 General Meeting of Shareholders of Siegfried Holding AG approved a conditional share capital of CHF 420 000 in total, divided into 210 000 registered shares with a par value of CHF 2 each. As per December 31, 2018, a total of 106 749 shares has been issued out of the conditional share capital approved in 2014, in accordance with the purpose set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. As a result, the conditional share capital pursuant to Article 3bis of the Articles of Incorporation amounts to CHF 206 502, divided into 103 251 registered shares with a par value of CHF 2 each. This corresponds to approx. 2.4% of the outstanding share capital.

The conditional share capital is reserved for the issuance of Siegfried shares to members of the Board of Directors and/or its group companies. Pre-emptive rights as well as advances subscription rights of company shareholders are excluded. The issuing of shares or related pre-emptive rights to members of the Board of Directors and/or employees of Siegfried Holding AG and/or its group companies shall take place in accordance with one or more regulations to be issued by the Board of Directors, taking into account such criteria as performance, functions, responsibility levels, and profitability. Shares or pre-emptive rights may be issued to members of the Board of Directors and/or employees of Siegfried Holding AG and/or its group companies at a price below the market price.

2.3 Changes in Share Capital

In the business year 2018, the share capital of Siegfried Holding AG increased by CHF 91 668 as a result of the issuance of 45 834 shares to the members of the Board of Directors and/or employees of Siegfried Holding AG and/or its group companies out of conditional share capital in accordance with Article 3bis of the Articles of Incorporation.

In the business year 2017, the share capital of Siegfried Holding AG increased by CHF 88 648 as a result of the issuance of 44 324 shares out of conditional share capital in accordance with Article 3bis of the Articles of Incorporation.

In the business year 2016, the share capital of Siegfried Holding AG increased by CHF 33 182 as a result of the issuance of 16 591 shares out of conditional share capital in accordance with Article 3bis of the Articles of Incorporation.

2.4 Participation Certificates and Dividend-right Certificates

As of December 31, 2018, Siegfried Holding AG has no participation certificates or dividend-right certificates outstanding.

2.5 Limitations on Transferability and Registration of Nominees

For as long as the shares of Siegfried Holding AG are in uncertificated form and registered as intermediated securities, any transfer and collateralization of shares must be made in accordance with the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act.

Voting rights may be exercised only after a shareholder has been registered in the share register of Siegfried Holding AG as a shareholder with voting rights. Registration in the share register is subject to the following statutory restrictions:

- Registration requests are considered granted if Siegfried has not denied them within 20 days after receipt.
- Petitioners must expressly declare that they have acquired the shares in their own name and for their own account. Individual persons, who refrain from explicitly declaring in the registration application that they hold the shares for their own account ("nominees") may be entered into the share register with voting rights, provided the nominee enters into a corresponding agreement with the Board of Directors, and is subject to a recognized bank or financial market supervision. As of December 31, 2018, such an agreement existed with one nominee (Tweedy, Browne, New York, USA). All other nominees were registered in the share register without voting rights.

2.6 Convertible Bonds and Options

As per December 31, 2018 Siegfried had no convertible bonds or options outstanding.

With respect to performance share units granted to the members of the Executive Committee and upper and middle management under the Long Term Incentive Plan of Siegfried Holding AG, please consult the Remuneration Report (page 33 et seq.).

3.3 Permitted Activities in the Supreme Managing or Administrative Body of Other Companies

Members of the Board of Directors of Siegfried Holding AG may not assume more than twenty additional mandates, of which no more than five for publicly listed companies. This applies to any mandate in the supreme managing or administrative body of a legal entity that is subject to the obligation to be entered in the Swiss commercial register or a corresponding register abroad. Mandates in different legal entities under common control or owned by the same beneficial owner shall be deemed to constitute a single mandate.

Not subject to these limitations are (i) mandates in companies that are controlled by, or which control, Siegfried Holding AG; (ii) mandates that a member of the Board of Directors assumes at the direction of Siegfried Holding AG or a group company, provided that no member of the Board of Directors may assume more than ten such mandates at companies that are not controlled by, or do not control, Siegfried Holding AG; (iii) mandates in associations, non-profit foundations, and pension benefit foundations, provided that no member of the Board of Directors may assume more than ten such mandates.

3.4 Election and Terms in Office

The Board of Directors is responsible for the supervision of the Siegfried Group and its business units. The Board determines the group strategy, the allocation of resources, and the management structure of the Siegfried Group. It is also responsible for setting the organizational structure, accounting, financial control, and financial planning. To the extent it does neither exercise these duties itself nor delegate them to the Chairman of the Board, the Board of Directors has delegated the management of the business to the CEO of the Siegfried Group. Decisions are taken by the entire Board of Directors. The Board Regulations setting forth the Board's powers, duties, and internal organization may be found under http://www.siegfried.ch/fileadmin/Dateien/PDF/Others/2019_Organisationsreglement_DE.pdf.

During the business year 2018, the Board of Directors met for three one-day ordinary meetings, two half-day ordinary meetings and a strategy meeting of two days. In addition, numerous teleconferences were held. All Board members were present at all meetings.

3.5 Internal Organization

The Board of Directors is responsible for the supervision of the Siegfried Group and its business units. 3.6 Information and Control Instruments

The internal information and control system of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee is based on the following monthly reporting instruments: Revenues and other financial results of the Siegfried Group are presented in detail and compared with the budget and the previous year's results – including a financial forecast for the entire year. Quarterly reports focus on budget deviations, important business incidents, and the most important key performance indicators. A five-year plan outlines the financial planning for the next five business years. The Internal Control System (ICS) and a comprehensive risk management procedure (described in detail on pages 58 et seq. of the Financial Report) further add to the Board's information and control instruments.

The results are discussed and evaluated with the CEO, the CFO and other members of the Executive Committee at the meetings of the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the Chairman of the Board discusses the course of business and other important topics with members of the Executive Committee on a regular basis.

4. Executive Committee

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is responsible for the operative and results-oriented management of the Siegfried Group and its divisions. Subject to the competencies and directives of the Board of Directors and its Chairman, the CEO is responsible for the definition and achievement of the corporate goals as well as the management of the Siegfried Group companies (results and balance sheet responsibilities). The detailed responsibilities and functions of the CEO are described in the Siegfried Group Board Regulations (see http://www.siegfried.ch/fileadmin/Dateien/PDF/Others/2019_Organisationsreglement_DE.pdf).

4.1 Members of the Executive Committee

There were no changes in the composition of the Executive Committee in the business year 2018.

As announced by Siegfried on June 4, 2018 Dr. Rudolf Hanko stepped down from his position as CEO of the Siegfried Group as per the end of the business year 2018. With effect as per January 1, 2019 Dr. Wolfgang Wienand, former Head Strategy and M&A and Head Research & Development, was appointed as new CEO by the Board of Directors. Dr. Hanko will be proposed to the shareholders for election to the Board of Directors of Siegfried Holding AG at the upcoming Annual General Meeting on April 17, 2019.

In addition, on October 15, 2018 Siegfried announced the appointment of Dr. Jürgen Roos as new Chief Scientific Officer of the Siegfried Group as per April 1, 2019. Members of the Executive Committee may hold office until they reach the age of ordinary retirement under Swiss law. As of December 31, 2018, the age of ordinary retirement is 64 years for women and 65 years for men.

4.2 Management Contracts

Siegfried Holding AG and its group companies have not entered into any management contracts with third parties.

4.3 Permitted Activities in the Supreme Managing or Administrative Body of Other Companies

Members of the Executive Committee of Siegfried Holding AG may not assume more than five additional mandates, of which no more than one may be for a publicly listed company. This applies to any mandate in the supreme managing or administrative body of a legal entity that is subject to the obligation to be entered in the Swiss commercial register or a corresponding register abroad. Mandates in different legal entities under common control or owned by the same beneficial owner shall be deemed to constitute a single mandate.

Not subject to these limitations are (i) mandates in companies that are controlled by, or which control, Siegfried Holding AG; (ii) mandates that a member of the Executive Committee assumes at the direction of Siegfried Holding AG or a group company, provided that no member of the Executive Committee may assume more than ten such mandates at companies that are not controlled by, or do not control, Siegfried Holding AG; (iii) mandates in associations, non-profit foundations, and pension benefit foundations, provided that no member of the Executive Committee may assume more than ten such mandates.

4.4 Profiles

Dr. Wolfgang Wienand,
Chief Scientific and Strategy Officer
(since 01.01.2019:
Chief Executive Officer)

Wolfgang Wienand (1972) joined the Siegfried Group in 2010 as Chief Scientific Officer, responsible for Siegfried's global Research and Development activities. In December 2011, he took over the function as Chief Strategy Officer with responsibility for Strategy, Mergers & Acquisitions, Legal and Intellectual Property Management and Regulatory Affairs. From May 2017 until December 2018, he was in charge for both areas. With effect as per January 1, 2019, the Board of Directors appointed Wolfgang Wienand as new Chief Executive Officer of the Siegfried Group. Before joining Siegfried, Wolfgang Wienand held senior management positions at Evonik Industries AG with a focus on fine chemistry and custom manufacturing for the pharmaceutical industry. Wolfgang Wienand studied chemistry at the University of Bonn and subsequently obtained a Ph.D. in organic and bioorganic chemistry from the University of Cologne. In addition, he holds an Executive Master's Degree in International Finance of HEC in Paris. Wolfgang Wienand is a German citizen.

5. Remuneration, Investments and Loans

5.1 Content and Method of Determining the Remuneration and the Equity Participation Plans

For details regarding the remuneration and shareholdings of the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee as well the principles and elements of remuneration and the equity participation plans of members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, together with a description of the authorities and procedures in connection therewith, please refer to the Remuneration Report on page 33 et seq. of this Annual Report.

5.2 Statutory Provisions regarding Performance-Related Remuneration and the Allocation of Equity Securities

Pursuant to article 23 of the Articles of Incorporation and subject to approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors consists of a fixed base remuneration, an individual functional remuneration and a lump-sum expense allowance in cash, as well as a fixed number of shares of Siegfried Holding AG. The Board of Directors determines the number of shares as well as the relevant terms and conditions, including the time of their allocation and any restrictions on transferability. Absent exceptional circumstances, the members of the Board of Directors do not receive any performance-based remuneration; any such remuneration would be measured against predefined performance targets only.

Pursuant to article 24 of the Articles of Incorporation and subject to approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders, remuneration for members of the Executive Committee consists of a fixed base remuneration in cash as well as performance-based remuneration, which comprises a short term performance-based remuneration in cash as well as a multi-year employee share ownership plan. The Board of Directors determines the targets, target levels, and target achievement for both the short- and the long-term performance-based remuneration in accordance with the principles set forth in the Articles of Incorporation (cf. http://www.siegfried.ch/fileadmin/Dateien/PDF/Others/Statuten/EN_Statuten.pdf).

In the event of a change of control of Siegfried Holding AG, or in case of other extraordinary events, the Board of Directors may during the course of an ongoing performance period adapt, shorten or eliminate the targets for performance-based remuneration, exercise conditions and periods as well as vesting periods and the relevant performance-based remuneration may be forfeited or paid out under the assumption that targets would have been achieved.

5.3 Statutory Provisions regarding Payments to Members of the Executive Committee Appointed after the Shareholders' Vote on Pay

Pursuant to article 25 of the Articles of Incorporation, Siegfried Holding AG or any group company may, with respect to any member of the Executive Committee who joins the Executive Committee or is promoted during a period for which the General Meeting of Shareholders has already approved remuneration for the Executive Committee, pay out remuneration for such period(s) if the amount already approved is insufficient. The amount per remuneration period may not exceed 40% for the CEO and 25% for each other member of the Executive Committee, of the most recently approved total remuneration.

In addition, Siegfried Holding AG may compensate a newly appointed member of the Executive Committee for any losses suffered in connection with assuming the new position as a result of forfeited vested benefits from his previous position. Such compensation may not exceed CHF 1 000 000 for the CEO and CHF 500 000 per person for the other members of the Executive Committee.

5.4 Statutory Provisions regarding Loans, Credit Facilities and Post-Employment Benefits

Pursuant to article 27 of the Articles of Incorporation, Siegfried Holding AG may grant loans and credits to members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee up to a maximum of the total of their respective individual fixed base remuneration in cash. In addition, Siegfried Holding AG may pay advances on attorney fees, court costs, and the like, up to a maximum of CHF 1 000 000 per member, in order to defend against liability and similar claims by third parties in connection with its activities performed for the company.

5.5 Statutory Provisions on the Vote on Pay at the General Shareholders' Meeting

Pursuant to article 16 of the Articles of Incorporation, the General Meeting of Shareholders resolves annually on the approval of the motions of the Board of Directors with regard to:

- the maximum total amount of remuneration for the Board of Directors for the term of office expiring at the next ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders;
- the maximum total amount of fixed remuneration for the Executive Committee for the following financial year;
- the total amount of short-term performance-based remuneration for the Executive Committee for the most recent financial year;
- the total amount of long-term performance-based remuneration for the Executive Committee for the current financial year.

Resolutions on the approval of remuneration for the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, respectively, are taken separately. The Board of Directors may submit the elements of remuneration for approval either separately or combined. In addition, the Board of Directors may submit proposals to the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding (i) the total amounts and/or remuneration elements for other periods and/or (ii) supplementary amounts for certain remuneration elements. If the General Meeting of Shareholders declines to approve a motion of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may submit new motions at the same General Meeting of Shareholders, at an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, or at the next ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. Shareholder Rights

6.1 Voting Rights and Proxy

Each share registered in the share register with voting rights grants to its holder one voting right at the General Meeting of Shareholders. A shareholder may be represented at the General Meeting of Shareholders by a natural person duly authorized in writing, or by the independent voting proxy.

The General Meeting of Shareholders passes its resolutions by a simple majority of the votes cast, unless a qualified majority is required by applicable law or the Articles of Incorporation. If no absolute majority is reached, the chairman casts the deciding vote.

The approval of at least two-thirds of the votes represented is required for resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders with respect to:

- a change of the company's purpose
- the creation of shares with preferential voting rights
- amendments to the provisions governing the transferability of shares
- the conversion of registered shares into bearer shares
- an authorized or conditional increase in capital
- an increase in share capital through the conversion of capital surplus, through an in-kind contribution or in exchange for an acquisition of property and a grant of special benefits
- the restriction or cancellation of pre-emptive rights
- the relocation of the company's registered office
- the dissolution of the company without liquidation.

6.2 Calling a General Meeting of Shareholders and Setting the Agenda

The General Meeting of Shareholders is called and the agenda therefore is set in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Swiss Code of Obligations.

Shareholders representing shares with a nominal value of CHF 500 000 or more may request that an item be added to the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Any such request must be made in writing at least 45 days prior to the meeting, setting forth the requested additional agenda item and the motion thereto. No previous request or notification is required for motions concerning items included on the agenda and for debates as to which no vote is taken.

6.3 Entry into the Share Register/ Invitation to the General Meeting of April 17, 2019

The Board of Directors has determined that the share register for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders 2019 will be closed on Wednesday, April 10, 2019. All Shareholders wishing to attend the Annual General Meeting of April 17, 2019, must submit their application for registration of shares in the share register no later than said date. No entries into the share register will be made from Wednesday, April 10, 2019, until Wednesday, April 17, 2019. Shareholders who sell their Siegfried shares prior to the General Meeting of Shareholders forfeit their voting rights.

The invitation to the General Meeting, the minutes of the previous General Meeting, and the motions of the Board of Directors are made accessible on the website of the Siegfried Group (www.siegfried.ch).

7. Change of Control and Defensive Measures

7.1 Mandatory Take-Over Offers

There are no provisions in the Articles of Incorporation of Siegfried Holding AG regarding opting out or opting up (article 125 and 135 of the FMIA).

7.2 Change of Control Clauses

The Long Term Incentive Plan of the Siegfried Group (see Remuneration Report, page 36 et seq.) provides that:

- a) in the event of a change of control of Siegfried Holding AG, plan participants will, on the date of the change of control, receive a pro-rated number of Siegfried shares for all PSUs granted for ongoing vesting periods. The number of Siegfried shares to be distributed per PSU is calculated on the basis of a valuation method to be determined by the Board
- b) in the event of a takeover which is not endorsed by the Board, Siegfried shares will be distributed to the plan participants pro-rata and on the basis of 100% target achievement as per the date of change of control for all PSUs granted for ongoing vesting periods. The pro-rata entitlement is calculated from the grant date of the PSUs until the date of change of control.

8. Auditors

8.1 Contract Duration and Lead Auditor Term Length

PricewaterhouseCoopers AG (PwC), Basel (or its predecessor companies) has been the statutory auditor of Siegfried Holding AG since 1920. For the business year 2018, the lead auditor, Thomas Illi, carried out the audit for the second time. The auditor is annually elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

8.2 Audit Fees

PwC billed the Siegfried Group for services in connection with auditing of the annual financial statement of Siegfried Holding AG and of the Siegfried Group companies, the consolidated 2018 financial statement of the Siegfried Group and related auditing services CHF 755 000 (2017: CHF 746 000).

8.3 Additional Fees

For tax consulting and other services in the financial year 2018, PwC billed the Siegfried Group CHF 123 000 (2017: CHF 372 000).

8.4 External Audit Informational Instruments

The Audit Committee evaluates and discusses the performance, fees, and independence of the auditor every year. It reports to the Board and proposes a motion at the General Meeting on the election (or reelection) of the auditor. The contract is awarded based on a budget presented to the Audit Committee by the auditor.

The auditor regularly attends the meetings of the Audit Committee; there were four meetings in 2018. During such meetings, the auditor presents detailed audit reports, which are also distributed to the Board. Assignments for PwC that go beyond the auditing mandate are subject to approval by the head of the Audit Committee.

9. Information Policy

The Siegfried Group is committed to an open and consistent information policy. The media, financial analysts and other interest groups are continuously informed about important developments and events.

Shareholders are informed semi-annually on the state of the business and receive the annual report and the semi-annual report upon request. The annual report, the minutes of the previous General Meeting, media releases, important information and the current share price can be found at www.siegfried.ch. A news conference is held semi-annually for the media and financial analysts.

Siegfried Holding strictly observes the mandatory disclosure rules of the SIX Swiss Exchange ("ad hoc disclosure") regarding potentially price sensitive facts. In 2019, the Siegfried Group will inform about the course of business as follows:

- March 7, 2019: publication of results for the 2018 business year at a media and analyst conference in Zurich (media and financial analysts)
- April 17, 2019, 10:00 a.m.: Annual General Meeting of Shareholders
- August 21, 2019: publication of 2019 half-year financial results
